VRS Agreement with RESEARCHPOOL

Valuation & Research Specialists (VRS) have agreed with ResearchPool for the uploading and distribution of VRS reports such as equity research reports, valuations of public or non public companies, financial analysis and academic research via ResearchPool's platform. ResearchPool is the sixth provider / distributor of VRS research reports internationally, following VRS agreements with Bloomberg in 2016, Inquiry Financial in 2013, Factset in 2011, Capital IQ (member of Standard & Poor's) in 2010 and Thomson Reuters in 2006.

ResearchPool is a UK incorporated company based in London that operates an online aggregation platform and marketplace for financial research and market commentary on a wide range of European and international markets. It provides both premium and free reports from a broad spectrum of research providers ranging from independent research providers to brokers.
